Scholarship News

A core purpose of the Space Coast Post is the distribution of scholarships. Within this realm, nothing is more satisfying than knowing future lives are positively affected through this generous contribution. The Scholarship Committee works with various college and high school organizations to publicize the availability of the scholarship and encourage participation.

The Space Coast Post offers scholarships to both high school and college age students. The selection criteria is published with the applications. This information can be found on the SAME web site in February for college students and in April/May for high school students.

The Scholarship Chair has established a subcommittee to explore, among other things, how to improve student participation in our program, our partnership relations and the selection criteria.

Your help and contribution to our Post is allowing us to continue to engage young minds to enter and succeed in our honored professions.

The SAME Mission

“To promote and facilitate engineering support for national security by developing and enhancing relationships and competencies among uniformed services, public- and private-sector engineers and related professionals, and by developing future engineers through outreach and mentoring.”

The SAME Vision

“To be a premier global engineering organization leading the professional and personal growth of all members in support of military readiness and development of solutions to national security challenges.”

News from your Post

EMERGENCY PREPAREDNESS AND HOMELAND SECURITY GETS A NEW NAME

EP and HS is now Emergency Preparedness and Contingency Operations in a decision by the SAME Board of Directors in April 2012. The Board felt that resilience of infrastructure after natural or other disasters better described the SAME mission. However, this doesn't decrease its importance.

From its very beginning the Society has focused on "the collective knowledge and the cooperation between the public and private sectors" during emergencies as a fundamental part of its mission. For example, in the early 1980's many posts developed Fast Start plans for getting information concerning engineering resources into the hands of public officials for dealing with events such as hurricanes, earthquakes, and failure of structures.

Our Emergency Preparedness Committee Chair is Lou Martinez, who will be undertaking further development of our capability during 2012 and 2013. We also want to congratulate Lou who was recently named a SAME Fellow (F.SAME). Under Lou's guidance, the committee will be writing a Fast Start plan, briefing county, municipal, and military officials, and increasing our Post's expertise through members who are qualified by the Emergency Management Institute at Frederick College, Maryland in the FEMA Incident Command System. The courses and tests are on the FEMA website.

Our goal is to have at least three members qualified at the IS-100 level (a three hour course) and to have at least three members who have completed eight hours of training by January 1, 2013. These courses are good for some continuing education credit for professional licensing. The combination of this training, as well as the meetings above, will qualify our post for a streamer in 2013.

If anyone has completed one or both of the following types of training

- IS-100.a training within the past three years; or
- Eight hours of IS-200.a or IS-700 training in 2012, or is interested in being part of this committee, please contact Lou Martinez, F.SAME and Post Emergency Preparedness Chair, at lou.martinez@martinezmgt.net.
